POLICY HANDBOOK

CHARGING AND REMISSIONS POLICY

1. AIMS

1.1 Our school aims to:

- Have robust, clear processes in place for charging and remissions
- Clearly set out the types of activity that can be charged for and when charges will be made

2. LEGISLATION AND GUIDANCE

2.1 This policy is based on advice from the Department for Education (DfE) on charging for school activities and the Education Act 1996, sections 449-462 of which set out the law on charging for school activities in England. Academies are required to comply with this Act through their funding agreements.

2.2 This policy complies with our funding agreement and articles of association.

3. DEFINITIONS

3.1 Charge: a fee payable for specifically defined activities.

3.2 Remission: the cancellation of a charge which would normally be payable.

4. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

4.1 The governing board

The governing board has overall responsibility for approving the charging and remissions policy, but can delegate this to a committee, an individual governor or the headteacher.

4.2 The governing board also has overall responsibility for monitoring the implementation of this policy.

4.3 Headteachers

The headteacher is responsible for ensuring staff are familiar with the charging and remissions policy, and that it is being applied consistently.

4.4 Staff

Staff are responsible for:

- Implementing the charging and remissions policy consistently
- Notifying the headteacher of any specific circumstances which they are unsure about or where they are not certain if the policy applies

4.5 The school will provide staff with appropriate training in relation to this policy and its implementation

4.6 Parents

Parents are expected to notify staff or the headteacher of any concerns or queries regarding the charging and remissions policy.

- Education provided outside of school time that is not part of:
 - The national curriculum

 - Religious education
- Examination entry fee(s) if the registered pupil has not been prepared for the examination(s) at the school

- Board and lodging for a pupil on a residential visit
- Extended day services offered to pupils (such as breakfast clubs, after-school clubs, tea and supervised homework sessions)

6.4 When calculating the cost of optional extras, an amount may be included in relation to:

- Teaching staff engaged under contracts for services purely to provide an optional extra (including supply teachers engaged specifically to provide the optional extra)
- The cost, or an appropriate proportion of the costs, for teaching staff employed to provide tuition in playing a musical instrument, or vocal tuition, where the tuition is an optional extra

6.5 Any charge made in respect of individual pupils will not be greater than the actual cost of providing the optional extra activity, divided equally by the number of pupils participating.

6.6 Any charge will not include an element of subsidy for any other pupils who wish to take part in the activity but whose parents are unwilling or unable to pay the full charge.

6.7 In cases where a small proportion of the activity takes place during school hours, the charge cannot include the cost of alternative provision for those pupils who do not wish to participate.

6.8 Parental agreement is necessary for the provision of an optional extra which is to be charged for.

6.9 Music tuition

Schools can charge for vocal or instrumental tuition provided either individually or to groups of pupils, provided that the tuition is provided at the request of the pupil's parent.

- If the teaching is provided under the first access to the Key Stage 2 instrumental and vocal tuition programme

7. VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS

7.1 As an exception to the requirements set out in section 5 of this policy, the school is able to ask for voluntary contributions from parents to fund activities during school hours which would not otherwise be possible.

7.2 Some activities for which the school may ask parents for voluntary contributions include:

- School trips
- Music tuition
- Workshops/visitors to school

7.3 There is no obligation for parents to make any contribution, and no child will be excluded from an activity if their parents are unwilling or unable to pay.

9. REMISSIONS

9.1 In some circumstances the school may not charge for items or activities set out in sections 6 and 8 of this policy. This will be at the discretion of the governing board and will depend on the activity in question.
